To

The Chief Secretary to Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Sir,

Subject: Presentations to Her Excellency Lady Mountbatten and party during their visit to the Government Silk Weaving Factory, Mysore.

I have the honour to state that Government in their Order No. D.1858-60/I&C. 27-40-10 dated 5th October 1948 have accorded sanction to debit the entire expenditure of Rs. 1,077-10-0, the value of the presentations to Her Excellency Lady Mountabatten and party during their visit to the Government Silk Weaving Factory, Mysore, to the provisions made under "12 General Administration - 1 Staff & Household of His Highness the Maharaja (VII) Reception and Entertainment of Guests in the budget for the year 1948-49, a credit being given to the Government Silk Weaving Factory, Mysore on that score and as such the General Manager of the Factory has submitted a Bill for Rs.1,077-10-0 on that account with a request that you may kindly be addressed to countersign the bill and forward the same to the Comptroller for arranging payment by credit to the Drawing Account of the Factory in the District Treasury, Mysore.

In the circumstances stated, I request you kindly to countersign the bill in question and forward the same to the Comptroller for necessary credit of the amount of the bill to the Drawing Account of the Government Silk Weaving Factory, Mysore, as desired by the General Manager early under advise to this office.

Yours faithfully,

ADDITIONAL DIRECTOR.
